

Notice of Privacy Practices

Effective: April 14, 2003
Contact: Privacy Officer (Operations Manager)

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Arizona Pain and Spine Institute, PLLC is required by law to maintain the privacy of protected health information (PHI) and to provide individuals with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to protected health information.

Assigning Privacy and Security Responsibilities: It is the policy of this medical practice that the portability & Accountability Act (HIPAA) Privacy and Security Rule's requirements. Furthermore, it is the policy of this medical practice that this individual will be provided sufficient resources and authority to fulfill their responsibilities.

Minimum Necessary Use and Disclosure of Protected Health Information for Treatment, Payment and Health Operations: It is the policy of this medical practice that for all routine and recurring uses and disclosures of PHI except for uses of disclosures made 1) for treatment purposes, 2) to or as authorized by the patient or 3) for payment, 4) for health care operations, 5) as required by law and for HIPAA compliance and such uses and disclosures of protected health information must be limited to the minimum amount of information needed to accomplish the purpose of the use or disclosure, it is also the policy of this medical practice that non-routine uses and disclosures will be handled pursuant to established criteria. It is also the policy of this organization that all request for protected health information (except as specified above) must be limited to the minimum amount of information needed to accomplish the purpose of the request. We will use your health information for treatment: For example: A bill may be sent to you or a third-party payer. This information on or accompanying the bill may include information that identifies you, as well as your diagnosis, procedure and supplies used. We will use your health information for regular health operations. Members of the medical staff, the risk or quality improvement manager, or members of the quality movement team may use your information in your health record. This information will then be used in an effort to continually improve the quality and effectiveness of the healthcare and service we provide.

Appointment Reminders: We may use and disclose medical information to contact and remind you about appointments, if you are not home; we may have this information on your answering machine or in a message left with the person answering the phone. Notification: We may use or disclose information to notify or assist in notifying a family member, personal representative, or another person responsible for your care, your location and general condition.

Communication with Family: Health professionals, using their best judgment, may disclose to a family member, other relative, close personal friend, or any other person you identify, health information relevant to that person's involvement in your care or payment related to your care.

Judicial and Administrative Proceedings: We may, and or sometimes required by law, to disclose your health information in the course of any administrative and judicial proceeding to the extent expressly authorized by a court or administrative order. We may also disclose information about you in response to a subpoena, discovery request or other lawful process if reasonable efforts have been made to notify you of the request and you have not objected, or if your objections have been resolved by a court or administrative order.

Specialized Government Functions: We may disclose health information for military or national security purposes or to correctional institutions or law enforcement officers that have you in their lawful custody.

Coroners/Funeral Directors: We may disclose your health information to funeral directors/coroners consistent with applicable law to carry out their duties. Public Health: As required by law, we may disclose your health information to public health or legal authorities charged with preventing and controlling disease, injury, or disability.

Workers Compensation: We may disclose health information to the extent authorized by and to the extent necessary to comply with laws relating to workers compensation or other similar programs established by law.

Arizona Pain and Spine Institute, PLLC will abide by the following policies regarding patient privacy practices: We will have the most current notice of privacy practices available for distribution at our reception desk.

Business Associates must be contractually bound to protect health information to the same degree as set forth in the policy. It is also the policy of this organization that business associates who violate their agreement will be dealt with first by an attempt to correct the problem, and if that fails by termination of the agreement and discontinuation of services by the business associate.

Prohibited Activities: No Retaliation or Intimidation- no employee or contractor may engage in any intimidating or retaliatory acts against people who file complaints or otherwise exercise their rights under HIPAA regulations. It is also the policy of this organization that no employee or contractor may condition treatment or payment on the provision of an authorization to disclose protected health information except as expressly authorized under the regulations.

Certification of Identity of all persons who request access to protected health information will be verified before such access is granted.

Deceased Individuals: privacy protections extend to information concerning deceased individuals

Mitigation: effects on any unauthorized use or disclosure of protected health information will be mitigated to the extent possible.

Safeguards will be in place to reasonably safeguard protected health information from any intentional or unintentional use or disclosure that is in violation of the HIPAA Privacy Rule. These safeguards will include physical protection on premises of PHU, technical protection of PHI maintained electronically and administrative protection. These safeguards will extend to the oral communication of PHI. These safeguards will extend to PHI that is removed from this organization.

Training and Awareness: all employees have been trained on the policies and procedures governing protected health information and how this medical practice complies with the HIPAA Privacy and Security Rules.

Retention of Records: The HIPAA Privacy Rule which requires records retention of at least six years will be strictly adhered to.

Regulatory Currency: we remain current in our compliances program with HIPAA regulations.

Cooperation with Health/Privacy Oversight Authorities: Agencies such as the Office for Civil Rights of the Department of Health and Human Services will be given full support and cooperation in their efforts to ensure the protection of health information within this organization. It is also the policy of this organization that all personnel must cooperate fully with the privacy compliance review and investigations.

Understanding Your Health Record/Information: Each time you visit Asim Khan, M.D. or Daniel L. Ryklin, M.D.; jointly practicing as Arizona Pain and Spine Institute, PLLC, a record of your visit is made. Typically, this record contains your symptoms, examination and procedure results. This information, often referred to as your health or medical record, serves as a:

- Basis for planning your care and treatment by your physician.
- Means of communication among the many health professionals who contribute to your care.
- Legal document describing the care you receive.
- Means by which you or a third-party can verify that services billed were actually provided
- A tool for educating health professionals.
- A source of information for public health officials charged with improving the health of this state and nation.
- A tool with which we can assess and continually work to improve the care we render. Understanding what is in your record and how your health information is used helps you to: ensure its accuracy, better understanding who, what, when, where and why others may access your health information, and make more informed decisions when authorizing disclosures to others.

Your Health Information Rights: Although your record is the physical property of Asim Khan, M.D. and Daniel L. Ryklin, M.D.; jointly practicing as Arizona Pain and Spine Institute, PLLC, this information belongs to you. You have the right to:

- Obtain paper copy of this notice of information practices upon request.
- Inspect and copy your health records.
- Amend your health record.
- Obtain an accounting of disclosures of your health information.
- Request communications of your health information by alternative means or at alternative locations.
- Request a restriction on certain uses and disclosures of your information.

It is a requirement that the above requests be in writing. You may request a change in your record; however, we are not required to agree with your requests. It is the policy of this medical practice that we will adopt, maintain and comply with our Notice of Privacy Practices, which shall be consistent with HIPAA and Arizona law.

Our Responsibilities: Arizona Pain and Spine Institute, PLLC is required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information,
- Provide you with this notice as to our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to information we collect and maintain about you,
- Abide by the terms of this notice,
- Notify you if we are unable to agree to requested restrictions, and
- Accommodate reasonable request you may have to communicate health information by alternative means or at alternative locations.

We reserve the right to change our practices and make the new provisions effective for all protected health information we maintain. Should our information practices change, we will notify you on your next visit.

We will not use or disclose your health information without your written authorization, except as described in this notice. We will also discontinue using or disclosing your health information after we have received written revocation of the authorization according to the procedures included in the authorization.

Arizona Pain and Spine Institute, PLLC, will utilize every reasonable means to protect your health information; however charts may occasionally be visible in the office or transferred from one internal facility to another. Also, patient information may be visible on computer screens, and although we exercise great care in fax and email transmissions, we cannot guarantee that it will not go to an incorrect recipient.

Complaints: Complaints about this notice or how this medical practice handles your health information should be directed to the Privacy Officer listed in the front of this notice. If you are not satisfied with the manner in which this office handles complaints, you may submit a formal complaint to:

Department of Health and Human Services Office of Civil Rights
Hubert H. Humphrey BLDG. 200 Independence Ave., SW Room 509f HI-
IN Building
Washington, DC 20201

You will not be penalized for filing a complaint.